WOMEN ON THE SHELF

Glasgow Women's Library's 'Women on the Shelf' fundraising initiative enables individuals and organisations to sponsor a Library section, shelf or book and dedicate it to a woman of their choice.

As well as building a living tribute to remarkable women, all the money raised through 'Women on the Shelf' goes directly towards the refurbishment costs still needed to complete the transformation of GWL's permanent new home in Bridgeton.

For £10 you can sponsor an individual book and we will record your donation with a dedicated bookplate; For £100 sponsor a shelf and dedicate it to a woman of your choice. Her name and the words you choose to honour her with will be recorded forever on a shelf. For £1,000 you can dedicate an entire Library section, with your heroine's name and tribute engraved onto a beautiful plaque. Bookplates, shelf and section markers have been specially designed and individually crafted.

Whether it's an historic figure; a woman making an impact today; a trailblazing pioneer or an extraordinary aunt, let's recognise and celebrate them all!

Women on the Shelf makes a wonderful gift, as unique as the Women's Library itself, so put a woman on the shelf today and help GWL to create premises of excellence that befit an exceptional national resource in Scotland.

I want to sponsor:       A Library Section for £1,000       A Shelf for £100       A book for £10
