

Glasgow Women's Library's Readers of Colour

Are you a young woman* or non-binary person of colour aged between 16 and 25?
Interested in seeing cool fringe shows and taking part in a book group focusing on a woman writer of colour?
With free tickets and a free book provided by Glasgow Women's Library and Fringe of Colour?

If so then our August Summer programme may be for you!

We're aiming to bring young folk of colour together over the course of the Edinburgh Festival Fringe to see shows, and read a book by a woman writer of colour: Tomi Adeyemi's Children of Blood and Bone. Think of it as a fun Summer school where you get to meet new people, see new shows/ books, and share your thoughts and opinions.

Introductory Meeting:

Thursday 25th July 18:00-19:30 Central Edinburgh

Time to See Some Shows! Pick one of the following dates below:

Visit <https://www.traverse.co.uk/> to find out more about our chosen shows

Until the Flood Tuesday 6th August 15.45 Traverse Theatre Enough 21:00

or

Enough Wednesday 7th August 11.00 Traverse Theatre
Until the Flood 18:15

Book Club Time! Take part in our book club, reading Tomi Adeyemi's Children of Blood and Bone:
(copies provided at our first meeting)

Tuesday 20th August 18:00-19:30 Central Edinburgh

Say Goodbye and Do Some Writing of Your Own in our final session:

Wednesday 28th August 18:00-19:30 Central Edinburgh

To book your place, email nadine.jassat@womenslibrary.org.uk by Wednesday 10th July 2019

*all GWL women-only events are inclusive of Trans, Intersex women, non-binary and gender fluid people